

*If you enjoy Rock Shabbat, you are going to love Rock Hashanah!

March 4, 2013

Dear Congregant,

At Temple Rodeph Torah, we continue to strive to create inspirational services and are excited to announce a special new morning Rosh Hashanah service this fall: Rock Hashanah! This unique High Holiday worship experience will welcome in the year 5774 with music and song for a New Year's celebration unlike anything you have ever experienced!

The Rock Hashanah service will be held the first day of Rosh Hashanah, at 11:00 am on Thursday, September 5, 2013. Ticketing will be limited and will require pre-registration. See the reverse side of this letter for sign up information. You can also sign up online at hh.trt.org. You must reserve seats for everyone in your immediate family who plans to attend, including children and other extended family members who will be purchasing tickets. The deadline for member ticket requests and extended family members' purchases for the Rock Hashanah service is June 1, 2013, after which time, ticketing will be open to the public. Tickets will be issued on a first come first served basis, so reserve your place now!

For those who prefer our traditional Rosh Hashanah service, this service will be held at 8:30 am on Thursday, September 5, 2013.

Congregants who attend the 11:00 am Rock Hashanah service will be assigned to the early, 8:30 am, Yom Kippur service. Those attending the traditional Rosh Hashanah 8:30 am service will receive tickets to the late, 11:00 am, Yom Kippur service.

Please sign up soon using the form on the back of this letter and consider joining us for Rock Hashanah, an innovative New Year's production of Temple Rodeph Torah.
